

New Quarter Park Reopens Saturday

Yorktown, Sept. 13—After volunteers and York County staff worked diligently to clean debris left by Tropical Storm Ernesto from trails and public access portions New Quarter Park, the 545-acre natural preserve will reopen on Saturday, Sept. 16.

“The Park's popular mountain bike trail and hiking trails as well as the third Saturday Bring Your Own Kayak (BYOK) program draw lots of people to the park,” said Molly Nealer, York County Parks and Recreation supervisor. “We are pleased to reopen New Quarter in time for our citizens to get outside and make the most of the beautiful early fall weather.”
